*Psalm Numbering: the number in () refers to the traditional Orthodox numbering. The number outside is that found in most modern Bibles.

This guide was designed to help Orthodox Christians read the entire New Testament in a year. The Gospels are placed so that one is read during each of the four fasts of the Church: Lent, Apostles, Dormition and Nativity. Selected psalms often used in liturgical prayer are added in late August. Acts, the story of the birth of the Church, is read in September which is the start of the Church Year.
